

Questions and Answers for Undocumented Immigrants Regarding FEMA Assistance

Q. If I am an undocumented immigrant, am I eligible for assistance for needs related to the recent storms, tornadoes, and flooding?

A. Yes, you may be eligible under many different programs run by State and local agencies and voluntary agencies for various types of cash assistance.

American Red Cross 866-438-4636 (English), 800-257-7575 (Spanish) Catholic Charities Farmworkers' Ministry 386-698-4234 (Spanish) Lutheran Services of Florida 800-651-1853

Q. If I am an undocumented immigrant, am I eligible for any assistance from FEMA?

A. You may be eligible for Crisis Counseling or Disaster Legal Services, and other short-term, non-cash, emergency aid. You will not be eligible for Disaster Unemployment Assistance. You will not be personally eligible for FEMA cash assistance programs (Individuals and Households Program Assistance). You may, however, apply on behalf of your U.S. citizen child, or another adult household member may qualify the household for assistance.

Even if you or your family does not qualify for FEMA cash assistance (Individuals and Households Program Assistance), please call FEMA at 800-621-3362 or 800-462-7585 (TTY for hearing/speech-impaired) for information and to be referred to other programs that can assist you regardless of your immigration status.

Q. If I am an undocumented immigrant, can I apply on behalf of my child who was born in the United States?

A. Yes, you can apply on behalf of your minor child (under 18 years of age) for FEMA cash assistance (Individuals and Households Program Assistance) if you live together. You will not have to provide any information on your immigration status or sign any documents regarding your status.

Q. Do I need a Social Security Number to register for FEMA cash assistance (Individuals and Households Program Assistance)?

A. If you are applying on your minor child's behalf, you should provide his/her Social Security Number.

Q. If I have a Social Security Number, am I eligible for FEMA cash assistance (Individuals and Households Program Assistance) as a "Qualified Alien"?

A. Not necessarily, because having a Social Security Number does not automatically mean that you are a qualified alien. You may be legally present in the U.S. and have a Social Security Number, but not be a qualified alien.

Q. What are FEMA's citizenship/immigration requirements?

A. You must be a U.S. citizen, non-citizen national, or a qualified alien in order to be eligible for FEMA cash assistance: Individuals and Households Program Assistance and Disaster Unemployment Assistance. A qualified alien includes anyone with legal permanent residence ("green card").

You will be asked to sign a Declaration and Release (FEMA Form 90-69 B) that you are a U.S. citizen, non-citizen national, or a qualified alien. If you cannot sign the Declaration and Release form, another adult household member who is eligible can sign it and no information regarding your status will be gathered.

If you have a minor child who is a U.S. citizen or a qualified alien, you can apply for assistance on your child's behalf and sign the Declaration and Release. No information regarding your status will be gathered.

You do not have to be U.S. citizen, non-citizen national or a qualified alien for Crisis Counseling or Disaster Legal Services or other short-term, non-cash emergency assistance.
